

WE UNITED SHOW TYPES AT A GLANCE

Below you will find general specifications for the various show formats (B-Rated, A-Rated, Regional and National Championships) based on the United States Working Equitation Rules.

	B-Rated	A-Rated	Regional Championships	National Championships
1-day format permitted	X
2-day format permitted	X	X	X	X
3-day or more format permitted	X	X	X	X
Qualifying scores required to compete			X	X
Horses can be entered twice	X *	X **
Technical Delegate required (WE United licensed "TD")		X	X	X
Separate Paddock and Gate Stewards required		X	X	X
Two to five Judges required			X	X
Farrier on-site required		X	X	X
Veterinarian on-site required		X	X	X
Veterinarian inspection upon arrival required		X	X	X
Emergency Medical Personnel on-site required		X	X	X
Two manual timers for speed acceptable	X
Automatic timer with manual back-up timer for speed trial required		X	X	X
30-50 cm high full Dressage arena fence required		X	X	X
Same public address system for courses, paddock, and stabling		X	X	X

* At B-rated shows, a horse may be ridden a maximum of twice with different riders; the riders must be in different divisions or levels. (Rule 1.7.d)

** For A-rated shows, a horse may be entered twice in a competition only if ridden by two different riders, one of which is competing in the Junior or Children's division. (Rule 1.7.d)