In submitting this application, I hereby certify that I understand that I must maintain a continuous membership with WE United to be considered for a Judge license and to maintain that license once it is issued. I understand a high standard of conduct is expected from licensed officials. I further understand and agree that WE United has the right to investigate complaint(s) regarding Judges’ alleged conduct. I hereby certify that I will cooperate in any investigations and abide by decisions concerning application approval and revocation of licensure. I hereby waive any right to require disclosure by the licensing body of any information obtained to evaluate my performance as a judge. I agree to continually uphold my character and reputation and that of WE United. I understand that regardless of my country of residence, this license should be referred to as a WE United “S” Judge license, not an International WE Judge License.
