Rider Medal Program Taking Off!

Rider Medal Program Taking Off

We're delighted to see so many WE United members participating in our Lifetime Performance Rider Medal Program. This program, designed to recognize and celebrate high-quality competitors, enables riders to earn recognition as their hard work begins to pay off in the competition arena.

As of today, twenty WE United members have earned qualifying scores and are well on their way toward becoming WE United Medalists.

We would like to congratulate the following WE United members for earning qualifying scores toward their Lifetime Rider Medals in July:

PROGRESSING TOWARD SILVER MEDAL

Cari Schwartz
Rob Zimmerman

PROGRESSING TOWARD BRONZE MEDAL

Julie Alonzo
Rachel Benjamin
Alison Burnett
Lizann Dunegan
Karin Hansen
Mary (Cassy) Holcomb
Jennifer Lenz
Joan Moore
Elizabeth Wesman

Special congratulations are in order for Joan Moore and Mary (Cassy) Holcomb, both of whom are just one Dressage qualifying score away from being the first to have earned their Bronze Medal in Working Equitation. Both of them have already earned the required 65% or higher score in both Dressage and Ease of Handling, as well as three additional scores of 62% or higher in Ease of Handling and two additional scores of 62% or higher in Dressage.

Like all our Performance Awards Programs, the Rider Medal Program is
